

Brave & Bold Dialogues™

COLLEGE EDITION

This award-winning online course uses the latest research, scenarios, and engaging activities. It addresses a wide range of issues relating to:

- Race
- Ethnicity
- Socio-economic status
- Gender
- Religion
- Sexual orientation
- Civility

The course was written by The Harbor Institute, an educational consulting firm focused on diversity and inclusion, and is brought to you by AliveTek, Inc., a leader in interactive, online course design.

Students will apply a 4-step approach to increase self-awareness and to better understand how their identities may be perceived by others.

BE AWARE

Be aware of who you are, how others might identify, and the situation.

BE CONSIDERATE

Consider all perspectives. View the situation from a different perspective.

1

2

3

4

EXPRESS UNDERSTANDING

Express understanding, concern, and empathy while being open, honest, and aware.

TALK ABOUT IT

Ask for permission to talk. Create a supportive space to talk openly to continue cultural growth and social healing.

AWARD WINNER

AFA 2021
Excellence in Educational Programming

You can license and customize this course for your college or university. Contact us today for a free demo.